Office Based Urology

1. BPH- urethral obstruction- LUTS (male and female)
    a. BPH
        i. Dx
        ii. Medical treatment BPH
        iii. Surgical Treatment BPH
    b. Urethral strictures-stenosis
        i. Pelvic Fracture Urethral Injuries
            1. Dx
            2. Treatment
        ii. Urethral stricture (Anterior)
            1. Dx
            2. Treatment
    c. LUTS – male and female
        i. Dx (UDS when is it necessary?)
        ii. Behavioral management iii. Pharmacological management
        iv. Options for refractory UUI/OAB (OnabotulinumtoxinA, neuromodulation)
    d. Stress Incontinence
        i. Behavioral and functional treatment ii. Surgical treatment (bulking agents, slings) 2. Sexual dysfunction –ED
    a. Androgen deficiency
        i. Dx
        ii. Medical therapy
    b. Erectile Dysfunction
        i. Use and contraindications of medical therapy 1. use in cardiac patients
        ii. injectable therapy, use and contraindications iii. Rx priapism
3. Neoplasia
    a. Low grade bladder tumor
        i. Dx, management ,Rx, including intravesicular therapy
    b. Prostate Cancer (Dx- observation protocols, antiandrogen therapy)
        i. Bx, MRI, observation protocols, antiandrogen therapy 4. Renal and Ureteral Calculi (does not include metabolic evaluation)
    a. Dx- Stones
    b. Rx
        i. All forms, SWL, PCN, ureteroscopy, etc ii. Medical therapy for underlying metabolic abnormalities
    c. Recommended follow-up following stone extraction